

Canso Credit Income Fund Announces Approval of Normal Course Issuer Bid

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TORONTO – July 16, 2021 – Lysander Funds Limited (the “Manager”) is pleased to announce that the Toronto Stock Exchange (“TSX”) has approved the notice of intention of Canso Credit Income Fund (the “Fund”) to make a normal course issuer bid (an “NCIB”) for its outstanding Class A units (TSX: PBY.UN) (the “Units”).

Purchases of Units pursuant to the NCIB will be executed through the facilities of the TSX and/or alternative Canadian trading systems at market prices under the NCIB rules of the TSX. The actual number of Units which may be purchased, and the timing of any such purchases, will be determined by the Manager. All Units purchased under the NCIB will be cancelled. The NCIB shall terminate on the earlier of July 19, 2022 and the date on which the Fund has acquired all the Units sought under the NCIB. The Manager believes that the NCIB is in the best interest of the Fund and its unitholders.

Canso Credit Income Fund

Pursuant to its NCIB notice, the Fund is entitled to purchase up to 971,851 Units, representing 10% of its public float, during the twelve-month period commencing July 20, 2021 and ending on July 19, 2022. Previously, the Fund was authorized to purchase 970,608 Units during the twelve-month period commencing July 17, 2020 and ending on July 16, 2021. As of July 2, 2021, there were 9,718,514 Units of the Fund issued and outstanding and the public float was 9,718,514 Units. The Fund is permitted to purchase, under the NCIB, up to 194,370 of its Units in any given 30-day period. Canso Credit Income Fund will be purchasing Units pursuant to the NCIB. Although no purchases were made under the previous NCIB, the Fund intends to purchase Units under the current NCIB. Purchases will be made by the Fund if the market price of the security is trading at a discount to its calculated net asset value per unit.
