Investment objective

Investment Strategies

The Fund’s portfolio manager is Slater Asset Management Inc. (“Portfolio Manager” or “Slater”). The Fund’s portfolio is primarily invested in preferred shares of Canadian issuers listed in Canada, using fundamental and credit research. The Fund will not be leveraged. The Fund may invest (at the time of purchase) up to 30% of its assets in foreign securities. More details are contained in the Fund’s simplified prospectus.

Risks

The risks of this Fund remain as discussed in the Fund’s most recent simplified prospectus.

Results of Operations

Preferred Shares followed had a tough first half to 2022, the S&P/TSX Preferred Share Index return was -9.86% and Series F of the Lysander-Slater Preferred Share Dividend Fund (“The Fund”) return was -9.70%.

The net assets of the Fund were approximately 84.2 million at June 30, 2022 from $98.1 million at the beginning of the period. There were net redemptions of $3.2 million during the period.

The first quarter of 2022 saw another wave of Covid-19 lockdowns across most of the Canadian provinces only to re-open to a string of other economic issues, record high inflation. The Russian invasion of Ukraine, supply chain issues, and further lockdowns across China were all contributing factors to higher prices of goods and services globally. The Canadian 5-year bond yield (benchmark for fixed rate reset Preferred Shares) increased from 1.25% at the beginning of the period, to as high as 3.62% in mid June, as analysts expected the Bank of Canada to tighten monetary policy to help get inflation under control. The $10 billion in Preferred Share redemptions that helped spur the best year performing year for Preferred Shares in 2021, did not transfer over in 2022 despite over $6 billion in product being redeemed by the end of June. The Limited Recourse Capital Market (“LRCN”) grew another $4.3 billion to a market cap of approximately $22.4 billion, and Toronto Dominion Bank launched a $850 million $1000 institutional Preferred Share bringing that market space to $1.6 billion in size. There was issuance of $400 million in traditional Preferred Share product in the first half of 2022, the theme of calling in traditional Preferred Shares and re-issuing lower cost LRCNs and $1000 Preferred Shares has continued in the first half of 2022, and the Fund expects it to continue over the next few years, specifically for bank and insurance products.

The Fund continued to position the portfolio in anticipation of higher interest rates as the market has sold off roughly 10% and the 5-year bond yield has increased over 200bps. The Fund increased its weighting in 225-300bp spread resets from an approximate weighting of 37.1% at the beginning of the period to 45.8% at the end of the quarter. Also, the Fund increased its weighting in <225bp fixed rate resets from 15.2% to 23.9% by the end June. The Fund decreased its straight perpetual exposure from 23% to approximately 13% at the end of the period amid rising interest rates.

There were no unusual changes to the components of revenue and expenses of the Fund and there were no unusual events or transactions, economic changes or market conditions that affected performance beyond what would be reasonably expected or have been described herein.

The Fund did not borrow money during the period except for immaterial short term cash overdrafts.

Recent Developments

Slater's thesis last year was for the Bank of Canada to begin raising rates in the first half of 2022, and for continued redemptions of Preferred Share product both of which has played out. However, the unexpected war in Ukraine and continued supply chain issues have caused inflation to spiral globally causing negative effects on both equity and fixed income markets including Canadian Preferred Shares. The anticipated $7 billion in Preferred Share redemptions an underestimate and we now anticipate close to $9 billion by the end of 2022. We believe that with the recent market pullback and higher bond yields Preferred Shares look very attractive from a yield standpoint. We also believe that the Canadian 5-year bond yield will settle in somewhere around 2.25%-3% over the next few years which is a healthy level for our market. Therefore, we continue to position the Fund in discounted fixed rate resets that should reset higher over the next few years upon reset date.

There have been no changes to the Manager or Portfolio Manager, or change of control of the Manager, or of the Fund. There have been no actual or planned reorganizations, mergers or similar transactions. There were no changes to the membership of the Fund's Independent Review Committee ("IRC").

Notes

- The information is derived from the Fund's unaudited semi-annual and/or audited annual financial statements. All per unit figures presented are referenced to net assets determined in accordance to IFRS.
- Net assets and distributions are based on the actual numbers of units outstanding at the relevant time. The increase (decrease) from operations is based on the weighted average number of units outstanding over the financial period. This table is not intended to be a reconciliation of beginning to ending net assets per unit.
- Distributions were paid in cash or reinvested in additional units, or both.
- This information is provided at the end of the period shown.
- The management expense ratio is based on the total expenses of the period ended and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset values during the period.
- The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of purchases or sales of securities divided by the weighted average market value of portfolio securities, excluding short term securities.
- The trading expense ratio represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.
