Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward looking statements. All opinions contained in forward looking statements are subject to change without notice and are provided in good faith but without legal responsibility.

The Fund has no specific intention of updating any forward looking statements whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by securities legislation. Results of Operations

During the period, Canso employed its bottom-up process to buy and sell securities for the Fund. The Fund's positioning and performance is consistent with the Fund's fundamental investment objective and strategies.

Recent Developments

During the period, global markets were defined by a striking disconnect between resilient risk assets and a volatile macroeconomic backdrop. Despite geopolitical tensions in the Middle East, persistent inflation, and a shifting narrative toward higher rates, both credit and equity markets remained remarkably resilient, as demonstrated by tight credit spreads, massive debt issuance, and blockbuster IPOs. Historically tight credit spreads appear increasingly at odds with interest rate volatility, persistent inflation, and growing late-cycle pressures. While fundamentals remain strong across select industries, others are beginning to weaken as economic headwinds build.

Throughout the period, the Bank of Canada (the "BoC") held overnight interest rates at 2.25%. The BoC has continuously highlighted weak economic activity in Canada and ongoing uncertainty surrounding U.S. trade policy. The BoC has also clearly signalled that it will remain on hold for an extended period as monetary policy passes the baton to fiscal policy.

During the period, the Federal Reserve (the "Fed") held the upper bound of the Fed Funds Target Rate at a level of 3.75%. Newly appointed Fed Chair Kevin Warsh reaffirmed the Fed's dual mandate and emphasized the committee's goal of restoring price stability. Markets interpreted the messaging as hawkish, with additional rate hikes in the second half of the year now fully reflected in U.S. swap market pricing.

The Fund maintained a sizeable position in liquid government securities as both credit and interest rate risks remained elevated. The weight to Government securities in the portfolio was 9.6%, while the weight to securities in the portfolio with ratings of AAA/AA was 36.1% as at the end of the period. The higher quality, liquid positions will allow the Fund to take advantage of future opportunities in the credit markets at more favourable valuations. The weight to securities in the portfolio with ratings of BB or below was at 9.7% - this relatively low weighting is indicative of the lack of opportunities in the lower quality segment of the credit markets by virtue of tight credit spreads.

During the period, the Fund added the following corporate bond issues: Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce 3.65% January 13, 2032; Enbridge Gas Inc. 3.65% April 1, 2050; Enbridge Gas Inc. 4.84% September 12, 2055; Montreal International Fuel Facilities Corporation 3.709% April 10, 2031; New York Life Insurance Company 4.20% May 9, 2033; Royal Bank of Canada 3.572% December 9, 2031; Toronto-Dominion Bank 5.918% July 31, 2086.

The top three securities that contributed to the Fund's performance over the period were: Great-West Lifeco Inc. 3.60% December 31, 2081; Manulife Financial Corporation 5.883% June 19, 2081; Manulife Financial Corporation 4.10% March 19, 2082.

At June 30, 2026, the Fund's duration was 5.7 years which is inline with the benchmark duration of 5.7 years.

There have been no changes to the Manager or Portfolio Manager, or change of control of the Manager, or of the Fund. There have been no actual or planned reorganizations, mergers or similar transactions involving the Fund.

There were no changes to the membership of the Fund's Independent Review Committee ("IRC").

The Portfolio Manager is responsible for all investment advice provided to the Fund including providing investment analysis and recommendations, making investment decisions and arranging for the acquisition and disposition of portfolio investments. Fees for providing these services are included in the management fee. Portfolio management fees for the Portfolio Manager's services are paid from the management fee.

4) This information is provided at the end of the period shown.

5) The management expense ratio ("MER") is based on the total expenses of the period ended, including the Fund's proportionate share of the MER, if any, of any underlying fund in which the Fund has invested, and is expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period.

6) The Fund's portfolio turnover rate indicates how actively the Fund's portfolio manager manages its portfolio investments. A portfolio turnover rate of 100% is equivalent to the Fund buying and selling all of the securities in its portfolio once in the course of the period. The higher a fund's portfolio turnover rate in a period, the greater the trading costs payable by the fund in the period, and the greater the chance of an investor receiving taxable capital gains in the period. There is not necessarily a relationship between a high turnover rate and the performance of a fund. The portfolio turnover rate is calculated based on the lesser of purchases or sales of securities divided by the weighted average market value of portfolio securities, excluding short term securities.

7) The trading expense ratio ("TER") represents total commissions and other portfolio transaction costs expressed as an annualized percentage of daily average net asset value during the period. Where the Fund invests in any underlying fund, the TER includes the Fund's proportionate share of the commissions of any underlying fund in which the Fund invested.
